This course was interesting. I really enjoyed each topic, and it improved my view toward the formation and variation of the signals. Moreover, it improved my view towards different systems and how do they work. This course is one of the best courses I took, it gave me huge information towards interesting topics that I really like which my future work mostly rely on.
I didn't like online exams at all, they make me feel stressed thus weakening my performance.

This course need to be taken in the university and face to face with the doctor in order to practice on the equations and exercises, if this is not possible so the exams and quizzes should be easy and give abundant time during it.
Online lectures in THIS COURSE was more effective than in other due to Dr Hilal's effort.
The course needed to be delivered on campus, we couldn't achieve all the expected outcomes in the online process
Exams level was fair. But we faced a problem concerning the time limit(it was short duration to complete our exam easily)
Thank you Dr hilal
Excellent.

Doctor hilal was so good in delivering the ideas and he put alot of effort in teaching us. But his exams are a little bit harder than other colleges exams concerning this course. And the questions were indirect and unexpected

Our situation with online learning ended up helping us and hurting us. It helped us understand the course much better thanks to recorded lectures that can be played back and no time wasted on copying. Also your decision to stick with interactive online sessions and not recorded uploads proved very effective, since we were able to ask questions on the spot. However our quizzes were structured in a rather unfair way. I understand that online quizzes are hard for both parties, but requesting only a final answer is very unfair especially in a big problem. In topic 4, I solved the 3rd question using rect but couldn't match it to any of the options, so I transformed the second derivative and divided the answer by jw, but I still couldn't find it. In a normal exam I would get half the grade or more but because of the circumstances it didn't go that way. However it doesn't bother me a lot because this is the first major course where I feel like I fully understand it. With your way of explaining it's hard not to understand honestly. So ya3tik el 3afye dr w I hope we all return to normal life very soon.
The signals course is rich in very useful and important information that helps us engineers in our fields this course signal and system is very hard but doctor hilal give us a good type of explaining and help us to understand the course Dr. Hilal is one of the best in online learning.

I really liked Dr hilal's method of teaching.I didn't feel any difference between taking lectures online or on campus with him.He explained the course topics briefly and gave each of them the time they needed and even more time. I'm really looking forward of taking other courses with him.
God bless Dr. Hilal! His explanation is very simple and understandable. He explains from bottom of his heart, this makes us, the students, very interested in the topic. I look forward to take more courses with him.

I was waiting course evaluation just to thank Dr hilal , I can thank him but email and I wish he can read this, Dr. Hilal thank you very much for your hardwork, usually a teenager's idol is a football player or actor or anything else but really my idol is dr hilal, for educational level he's perfect and from religious level he's perfect I wish by hardwork I can be like him, his explanation is wonderful but I face problems in quiz 2 and 3 they are not clear and I didn't do very well but I'm not sad because I know myself that it's easy and I studied and after every exam I resolve the exam easily but idk what happened to me during the exam Thank you again Dr hilal
The best instructor in my career.

He can Deliver the message in very clear way He is friendly
I am looking forwards to my future courses with you dr Hilal. Honestly the most devoted doctor in BAU and you know it's not an exaggeration.
Dr. Hilal was very professional while delivering this course,he moved through all the topics with a really clear and effective explanation,he made sure we are being able to understand all the details, he also was always available to answer our questions and help us with the material. Dr. Hilal was well organized and always on time.
And importantly mentioning, that through the covid 19 pandemic and the online lectures situation, he was able to deliver such a complex and full of material course in a very simple and effective way.
We really appreciate his efforts.
